

Presenting with the Power of Story

an Alliance@Work/CLE workshop experience

Thursday, October 9, 2014 | The Alliance Theatre*

Reception 2:00 - 2:30 p.m. | CLE 2:30 - 5:30 p.m. | Approved for 2.5 CLE Hours

The GDLA Education Committee is pleased to team up with Atlanta's Tony Award-winning Alliance Theatre and its Alliance@Work program to present a unique forum for enhancing your oral advocacy skills.

Alliance@Work is a professional development program for business professionals interested in improving their public speaking and presentation skills through theater and the power of storytelling.

This workshop method uses fun and insightful theater strategies to help you discover how to be authentic, confident and believable when presenting – whether to a jury, your clients, colleagues, etc.

You'll learn from professional directors and actors, who will provide a framework for effective presentation based on the ability to engage an audience with impactful storytelling.

We'll start with a networking reception to get acquainted (and relaxed!) before learning new skills to try out on stage. You do not want to miss what promises to be a truly innovative seminar. You are sure to learn a lot and probably even laugh a lot – not your typical CLE!
